17 ZYDECO CAJUN PRAIRIE BYWAY

The Zydeco Cajun Prairie Byway pays tribute to the music of south Louisiana, touching many iconic music spots while ambling through serene, rolling prairies. Visitors will come upon crawfish farms, sweet potato fields and pastures where cattle and horses graze. A ride along this 283-mile byway also illustrates why Louisiana is famous for its festivals. The towns along the route in St. Landry, Acadia and Evangeline parishes hold celebrations to honor everything from cotton to cracklins. The Zydeco Cajun Prairie Byway offers visitors their choice of routes, suiting all paces and interests.

A trip along the Zydeco Cajun Prairie Byway gives visitors a taste of the Cajun music, beautiful landscapes and festivals that make Louisiana famous.
