LORRAIN BRIDGE AND LORRAIN PARK
Historic and scenic bridge that connects Jeff Davis Parish to Calcasieu Parish. Just outside the small town of Bad City, LA, nine miles from Interstate 10 (Lacassine Exit). It’s a place where time stands still. This park is located at the foot of Lorrain Bridge.

Because of its unique design and construction, it is being considered for placement in the National Register of Historical Sites. This site was acquired in 1894 and the bridge was constructed around 1895 as a wooden type draw bridge. It was damaged in 1896, repaired in 1951 and in 1965 the draw bridge portion was disabled. The bridge remains open after restoration in 2004. Also features Lorrain Park, including an outdoor pavilion, camper and tent sites, a boat launch, and picnic tables.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL
Conceived in 1915 as the shortest route between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, the Old Spanish Trail connecting St. Augustine, Florida and San Diego, California, took nearly fifteen years to construct at a cost of more than $60,000,000. Unlike other transcontinental highways that stitched together existing roads across the continent’s relatively flat and dry interior, much of the Old Spanish Trail was forged over formerly impassable swamps in the Southeast, including the major outlets into the Gulf. Finally opening for travel in 1929, the highway was promoted as the most expensive and most highly engineered of all the transcontinental toll roads. US 80 between Welsh and Jennings and beyond.

GATOR CHATEAU
